

LICENSE

Joe Public Films, LLC, holder of the copyright for the documentary, “Out of Balance: ExxonMobil’s Impact on Climate Change” (“Out of Balance”) hereby grants license to publicly screen Out of Balance to the designated Exxpose Exxon student representatives to whom Exxpose Exxon provided a copy of Out of Balance only. The public screening may take place anywhere on the student’s campus or general school community.

The Exxpose Exxon student representative agrees to download the order form from the Out of Balance website and make an appropriate amount of copies (based on the size of the anticipated audience) available at all screenings.

RESTRICTIONS

Neither the Exxpose Exxon student representative, nor anyone designated or assigned by said representative may copy the contents of the DVD, put the contents of the DVD online, or give or sell the DVD or its contents to professors, any other individual or entity, including but not limited to their school library without written permission of Joe Public Films, LLC.

In cases where college or university administration require a preview screening before allowing the student representative for Exxpose Exxon to publicly show “Out of Balance”, Joe Public Films, LLC reserves the right to be notified of the decision made by the school.
